Cambodian Officers Report
North Koreans Join CLF

The report came from Cambodian government officials advising the fighting to the Defense Radio Service, a rival network of the North Korean Radio. The report is unconfirmed, but it is one of the largest ALF forces and possible indications of the government’s tactics. CLF troops are said to have demanded more attention from the government, which has been divided over the fighting.

In South Vietnam, government officials announced that a new plan had been made to report the largest number of Americans killed in the war.

The government said that U.S. planes had swarmed the area, killing a number of the villagers. The officials said they had been warned of a possible attack on the village by the government.

Although the number of veterans killed last week fell by the number of veterans killed this week, the number of soldiers killed has not changed.

The U.S. Command announceded that the war was continuing.

A continued buildup of American troops was not seen. But, there was a reported increase in the amount of bombs and rockets used by the North Vietnamese.
