Supervisors refuse applicants
Citizen questions Embree issue

By LARRY PHELPS

The opposition to the sale of Federal, the law firm of the construction firm that received the contract to build the new courthouse, has not wavered. Opponents have repeatedly raised the issue of the potential conflict of interest.

The opposition to the sale of Federal raises concerns about the potential influence of the firm on the decision-making process of the courthouse project.

On a recent meeting, the opposition expressed concern about the lack of transparency in the decision-making process. They argued that the potential conflict of interest could undermine the integrity of the project.

The opposition is calling on the City Council to reconsider the sale of Federal and to ensure that the decision-making process is free from any influence.

New media technologies
Multimedia riverbank museum

By BRENNIE NICHOLS

The new multimedia riverbank museum is a cutting-edge facility that combines historical exhibits with interactive multimedia displays. The museum is housed in a historic building that has been transformed into a state-of-the-art exhibit space.

The museum features interactive displays that allow visitors to explore the history of the river region. Visitors can learn about the river's role in shaping the region's economy, as well as its impact on the local culture.

The multimedia displays include videos, audio recordings, and interactive exhibits that bring the history of the river region to life. Visitors can explore the exhibits at their own pace and learn about the region's history in a fun and engaging way.

The museum is a must-see destination for anyone interested in the history of the river region. It is a unique and innovative facility that offers a refreshing new perspective on the region's history.

THIEVES' MARKET
ART & CRAFT SALE
Sunday, July 20 9:00–5:00 p.m.
Riverbank, next to IMU (Rain date, July 27)

LAST SALE UNTIL FALL
Artists: bring own setup. A registration fee will be collected at the Market. (Students, $1.50, non-students, $5.00.) Please, no food or beverage sales.

DOONESBURY

By GARRY TRUDEAU

The Doonesbury strip features a mix of political commentary and everyday life, capturing the essence of the times in a humorous and thought-provoking way.

On this particular strip, Doonesbury's protagonist, Mark Slackmeyer, is shown dealing with the complexities of modern life. The strip touches on a range of topics, from politics to pop culture, and offers a unique perspective on the world around us.

The Doonesbury strip is a timeless classic that continues to resonate with readers of all ages. It is a testament to the power of humor in addressing the issues of our time.