Two killed in Lebanon battle

The Lebanon war, which ended Sunday night after three days of steady fighting, has killed at least 150 people and left hundreds wounded. The death toll has risen to 1,000, according to the United Nations. The fighting was centered around the city of Beirut, where at least 100 people were killed in a single day. The war has been sparked by a dispute over the presence of foreign troops in the country.

iranian chief denounces U.S.

The Iranian leader, Ayatollah Khomeini, has denounced the United States as a "poisonous threat" to the region. In a speech broadcast on state television, Khomeini called for a "cultural revolution" in the United States, which he said was "plotted by the devil of Zionism." Khomeini also denounced the United States as a "source of all evil," and called for a "war of ideas" against American culture.

Suspect in armed robbery sought

A suspect is being sought in an armed robbery that occurred in the early hours of yesterday morning. According to police, the suspect entered the store and demanded money at gunpoint. The suspect was last seen fleeing the scene in a dark-colored vehicle. The investigation is ongoing.

Museum of Art

The Museum of Art, which was closed due to the storm, has reopened. The museum will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except on Sundays, when it will be closed. The museum has a large collection of paintings and sculptures, as well as a variety of special exhibits.

Firing squad

A firing squad has been formed to execute those found guilty of certain crimes. The squad consists of nine members, each of whom is a trained marksman. The squad has been established to ensure that executions are carried out quickly and efficiently.

Fire destroys 28,000 acres

A fire has destroyed 28,000 acres of land in the area surrounding the city of Dubuque. The fire started on Saturday afternoon and quickly spread due to high winds and low humidity. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is suspected to have been caused by a lightning strike. The fire has resulted in the evacuation of hundreds of people from their homes.

Central Retail Pharmacy

The Central Retail Pharmacy has announced a 20% discount on all medications. The discount is available to all customers, regardless of their insurance status. The pharmacy is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

Two killed in Lebanon battle

The Lebanon war, which ended Sunday night after three days of steady fighting, has killed at least 150 people and left hundreds wounded. The death toll has risen to 1,000, according to the United Nations. The fighting was centered around the city of Beirut, where at least 100 people were killed in a single day. The war has been sparked by a dispute over the presence of foreign troops in the country.

iranian chief denounces U.S.

The Iranian leader, Ayatollah Khomeini, has denounced the United States as a "poisonous threat" to the region. In a speech broadcast on state television, Khomeini called for a "cultural revolution" in the United States, which he said was "plotted by the devil of Zionism." Khomeini also denounced the United States as a "source of all evil," and called for a "war of ideas" against American culture.

Suspect in armed robbery sought

A suspect is being sought in an armed robbery that occurred in the early hours of yesterday morning. According to police, the suspect entered the store and demanded money at gunpoint. The suspect was last seen fleeing the scene in a dark-colored vehicle. The investigation is ongoing.

Museum of Art

The Museum of Art, which was closed due to the storm, has reopened. The museum will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, except on Sundays, when it will be closed. The museum has a large collection of paintings and sculptures, as well as a variety of special exhibits.

Firing squad

A firing squad has been formed to execute those found guilty of certain crimes. The squad consists of nine members, each of whom is a trained marksman. The squad has been established to ensure that executions are carried out quickly and efficiently.

Fire destroys 28,000 acres

A fire has destroyed 28,000 acres of land in the area surrounding the city of Dubuque. The fire started on Saturday afternoon and quickly spread due to high winds and low humidity. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is suspected to have been caused by a lightning strike. The fire has resulted in the evacuation of hundreds of people from their homes.

Central Retail Pharmacy

The Central Retail Pharmacy has announced a 20% discount on all medications. The discount is available to all customers, regardless of their insurance status. The pharmacy is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.