

HyperPrism Basic Operations

- 1) HyperPrism uses the Macintosh Sound Manager for audio output. Patch Mac Out 1,2 into the mixer.
- 2) Launch HyperPrism from Apple>Process/Synthesize>HyperPrism.
- 3) To open an AIFF or SD II file:
  - a) select File>New
  - b) a window like the one below will appear:

- c) select a soundfile and click open
- d) a window like the one below will appear:

- e) to play the file, press the Mac spacebar.
  - f) playback controls on the left of the screen can be adjusted.
- 4) To process a file:
    - a) select a process from the Processes menu
    - b) a window like the one below will appear:

- c) use the mouse to draw time-varying process in the blue window

- d) adjust the process fader(s) in the top-right corner of the window
- e) play to hear the results
- f) to create a processed file, select File>Process to New File and enter format and location info in the dialog box.
- g) to quit, select File>Quit, then click Don't Save.